Halau Kalama is a Nonprofit 501(c)(3) Organization that strives to educate and promote the arts of Polynesian music, language, and dance.

Kalama Polynesian Dancers has been a part of the Colorado community since 2007, bringing a mix of traditional and contemporary Polynesian entertainment to a variety of venues and local festivals.

- Colorado Dragon Boat Festival
- Boulder Aloha Festival
- Rocky Mountain Airshow
- Li'l Teeth Dentistry Summerfest
- Ronald McDonald Home
- Food Bank of the Rockies

We also produce our own Annual Lei Day Festival, a day we celebrate to embrace our island culture.

It's a day of color, celebration, flowers, and aloha!

Halau Kalama has been celebrating Lei Day in Denver to share not only the Hawaiian culture, but all cultures of Polynesia – from Tahiti to New Zealand and Samoa!

In the language of Hawai'i,
KALAMA
Means "The Torch"
Or "The Flame"

Like the flame,
our dancers ignite
and dance in the tropical wind.

Our hips keeping time to the island drums.

Our hands tell a story of the islands long ago...
